TESTIMONY

Tony McCloud

I have been blessed as I was raised in a strong Christian home. Both parents were involved in the church, father being head of the deacon committee and mother church secretary/accountant. Most of my free time was spent at church either helping my father work behind the scenes with church needs or with my mother with paper work. My father was adamant about the entire family attending Sunday school, bible studies and prayer throughout the week. As I grew up, I knew that Jesus died on the cross for my sins and had a relationship with the Lord. When I started High school I noticed, that I thought my relationship with the Lord was on my terms. I knew what the Bible said about sin and obeying my mother and father but I thought I would walk the line while picking and choosing what was acceptable. When I attended college, I found myself accepting things that my friends and I did even though I knew them to be sins. The Holy Spirit was heavy on my heart my sophomore year in college and I knew that I was not 100 percent in with my relationship with the Lord. One night I went in my room, fell on my knees, and laid all my burdens down. I serve an Awesome God that has forgiven me for all of my sins and accepted me home like the prodigal son.
